CHAPTER TWO

Master's Programs

General Principles

Master's Programs with Thesis

Duration

ARTICLE 3- In master's programs with thesis:

- a) Cumulative grade point average must be at least 3.00, the seminar course and the thesis study must be completed successfully in order to obtain the master's degree.
- b) A student who successfully completes the seminar course and the thesis study and whose cumulative grade point average is at least 3.00 can graduate in a shorter period.
- c) Procedures for dismissal of a student from the University due to being unsuccessful or failing to graduate within the maximum period shall be applied in accordance with provisions of the "Graduate Education and Training Regulation" published by the Council of Higher Education in the Official Gazette dated 20.04.2016 and numbered 29690 and accordingly with provisions of the regulation issued by our University.

Assignment of the thesis advisor

ARTICLE 4- The following provisions shall be taken into consideration for assignment of the thesis advisor:

- a) Every student shall submit a petition to the Program Executing Committee specifying his/her field of study in the second week of the first semester. The Program Executive Committee shall assign one advisor per student and inform the chair of department for him/her to present them to the relevant institute before the end of the third week of the first semester. Assignment of an advisor shall be finalized with approval of the relevant Institute Executive Board at the end of the fourth week of the first semester. Advisors shall be assigned by the Program Executive Committee for the student who cannot choose an advisor within the given time.
- b) (Amended: University Senate 31/10/2019 - 713) Those who work within the University with a doctorate degree or proficiency in art, the faculty members who work in other universities and the specialists with a doctorate degree or proficiency in art in the relevant subject that are working in institutions and organizations other than the higher education institutions can also be assigned as co-advisors with proposal of the Advisor and approval of the Program Executive Committee and chair of the department and the decision of the relevant Graduate School Executive Board. Justification is required during request of a co-advisor.

- c) Advisors cannot be changed in the semester when the master's thesis will be submitted.
- d) The students whose advisor has not been determined cannot register for courses starting from the second semester.
- e) The advisor is selected from among the faculty members working at the University. In cases deemed necessary according to the nature of the thesis work, faculty members working in another higher education institution may be selected as consultants upon the proposal of the Graduate School Executive Board and the approval of the University Executive Board.

Course Load

ARTICLE 5- The following provisions shall be taken into consideration in the master's programs with thesis:

- a) From the beginning of the third semester, the student can register for the thesis study every semester. Students who successfully complete the required course credits can also register for the thesis before.
- b) The seminar and thesis study are non-credit courses, and they are evaluated as pass or fail.
- c) The student can choose courses among other graduate programs within the university with approval of his/her advisor. Also, he/she can enroll in maximum two elective courses related to his/her program among the graduate courses offered at other higher education institutions with the proposal of the advisor and the Program Executive Committee, approval of chair of the department at the Graduate School and the decision of the Graduate School Executive Board. The courses to be taken from other higher education institutions should not be offered in curriculums of the University.

Completion of the Master's Thesis

ARTICLE 6- The following provisions shall be taken into consideration in completion of the graduate thesis:

- a) (Amended: University Senate 31/10/2019 - 713) The student is required to get an acceptance from a national or international conference for a paper presentation or an article produced from his/her thesis so he/she can submit his/her Master's thesis. The Graduate School Executive Board shall decide on whether the theses of which similarity percentage is only 10% from a single source and 20% in total and more than 20% (excluding publications produced from this thesis and bibliography of the thesis) on the basis of the plagiarism detection report will be delivered, considering justifications of the advisor and the student regarding the high percentage. Jury members convene for the thesis exam within a month from the submission of the thesis at the latest. If exam is not given within one month, attendance of the substitute jury members is ensured with approval of the Graduate School and the thesis exam is given within two weeks following the first month. The plagiarism detection report shall be resubmitted with the blue cover copy of the thesis.
- b) The thesis exam is between 60-120 minutes and it consists of presentation of the thesis study and a following question-answer section. The thesis exam is open to everyone and the audience can also ask questions to the student following questions of the jury members if the head of the jury deems appropriate. The audience should be outside during decision-making process. The student whose thesis is rejected by the jury at the end of the defense exam shall be dismissed from the University.

c) The student who is asked to revise his/her thesis shall be given maximum three months of extension. At the end of the three-month period, the student who fails to make the necessary revisions in his/her thesis may be given an additional maximum period of two months if his/her excuse is accepted by the Graduate School Executive Board. At the end of this period, the student shall re-defend his/her revised thesis delivered to the Graduate School and Institute with approval of his/her advisor before the same jury. The student whose thesis is rejected or the student who could not deliver his/her revised thesis to the Graduate School at the end of the revision period shall be dismissed from the university.

d) In the defense exam, the committee members and the student follow the 'Ethical Issues to be Followed in Interviews and Oral Exams' determined by the University.

e) If they deem necessary, departments can determine additional requirements for graduation other than requirements for graduation specified in the Education and Training Regulation and Principles of the Senate provided that they are announced prior to dates of the graduate application.

(Amended: University Senate 31/10/2019 - 713) In cases where a letter of request bearing signatures of both student and his/her advisor stating that the thesis study is unsuccessful is submitted to the Graduate School, the student shall be awarded with non-thesis master's degree, with the approval of the Graduate School Executive Board provided that he/she has fulfilled the minimum course credit load and term project requirements. This application can be made at the end of the third semester at the earliest.

Non-thesis Master's Program

ARTICLE 7- The following provisions shall be taken into consideration for the non-thesis Master's degree programs:

a) The non-thesis Master's program consists of minimum ten and maximum thirteen courses as well as a non-thesis term project provided (that) it is not less than thirty credits and not more than forty credits in total.

b) The relevant Program Executive Committee shall issue whether ALES score will be requested from the candidates who will apply to the non-thesis programs.

a) The advisor assignment procedures should be completed until the first day of the course registration period.

b) (Amended: University Senate 31/10/2019 - 713) The advisor or advisors shall be elected among the faculty members who work at the university with proposal of the Program Executive Committee and approval of the relevant Graduate School Executive Board. Also, those who work within the University with a doctorate degree or proficiency in art, the faculty members who work in other universities and the specialists with a doctorate degree who are working in institutions and organizations other than the higher education institutions can also be assigned as co-advisors with the proposal the advisor, approval of the Program Executive Committee and the chair of the department at the Graduate School and the decision of the relevant Graduate School Executive Board. The request to assign a co-advisor needs to be justified.

c) Advisors cannot be changed within the semester when the doctorate thesis will be delivered.

d) The student whose advisor has not been determined cannot register for courses starting from the second semester.

e) The advisor is selected from among the faculty members working at the University. In cases deemed necessary according to the nature of the thesis work, faculty members working in another higher education institution may be selected as consultants upon the proposal of the Graduate School Executive Board and the approval of the University Executive Board.

Doctorate qualifying committee and jury

ARTICLE 13- The doctorate qualifying committee shall take the following provisions into consideration:

a) The doctorate qualifying exam shall be administered in order to determine whether students have sufficient basic knowledge in their fields and doctorate thesis related subjects in the programs they are enrolled. These exams are arranged and administered by the doctorate qualifying committee. The doctorate qualifying committee program is formed with the proposal of the Program Executive Committee, agreement of the chair of the department at the Graduate School and the approval of the relevant Graduate School Executive Board, serving for three years, consisting of five members selected among the faculty members of the University.

b) The chair of the relevant department of the Graduate School will serve as the chairman of the doctorate qualifying committee, if he is within the committee. If chair of the department of the Graduate School is not within the committee, the committee shall elect a chairman from among them.

c) The Committee may establish exam juries consisting of five members, at least one of them should be from the doctorate qualifying committee, to prepare, administer and evaluate exams in different fields. The exam jury consists of five faculty members including the advisor, at least two of whom should be outside of their higher education institution. The advisor has a right to vote. The qualifying exam meetings shall be held open to attendance of the lecturers, graduate students and specialists.

Doctorate qualifying exam

ARTICLE 14- The following provisions shall be taken into consideration to administer the doctorate qualifying exam:

a) The doctorate-qualifying exam consists of two sections, written and oral. These exams shall be given on the day and hour announced by the Committee within the calendar year as issued by the Graduate School Executive Board.

b) (Amended: University Senate 31/10/2019 - 713) Scope of the written exam shall be issued by the Doctorate Qualifying Committee, approved by the chair of the Graduate School and announced by the Graduate School. The written exam consists of two parts; each of them lasts for at least three hours on two separate days.

c) (Amended: University Senate 31/10/2019 - 713) The written exam consists of two separate exams. The student will be entitled to take oral exam even if he/she could not get adequate points. The oral exam shall be given within five business days following second part of the written exam. The exam period shall be 45 minutes as minimum. If the student has a co-advisor, only the first advisor shall take place in the jury.

d) The student should get at least 50 out of 100 (50/100) points from first and second written exams and oral exam individually in order that he/she can be deemed successful in the qualification exam. Weight of the first and second exams are equal. Weight of the written exams among all exams is 65% and weight of the oral exam among all exams is 35%. Average of the written and verbal exams should be 65.

e) (Amended: University Senate 31/10/2019 - 713) Number of the questions to be asked in written exam should be more than number of the questions to be answered, and the student should be given the right to choose.

f) The juries shall deliver results of the exams to the doctorate qualifying committee along with suggestions one day after the exams at the latest. The committee shall examine minutes of the written and oral exams sent by the exam jury and decide on whether the student is successful or not according to the assessment criteria specified in clause (d), Article 14. This decision shall be notified to the Graduate School by department of the Graduate School within three days following the exam along with minutes.

g) If the student fails, he/she can be tested for only the part he/she has failed when he/she takes the qualification exam in the following semester. However, if the student wishes, he/she can retake the parts of the exam he/she passed in order to increase his/her grade that he/she has taken in the previous exam. In this case, his/her latest grade shall be valid. The student who does not take the qualification exam in the following period shall lose this right and be accountable for the whole exam.

h) (Amended: University Senate 31/10/2019 - 713) The qualification exam jury may ask the student who has completed the qualification exam successfully to take extra course/courses, no more than one third of his/her total credit amount and with the approval of the relevant Graduate School Executive Board, even if he/she has completed his/her required course load. The student should complete these courses successfully in order to defend his/her thesis.
